DON'T MISS OUT

on the opportunity to send your child to a private school that you choose. Sign up for the state-sponsored Cleveland Scholarship and Tutoring Program before the May 21st deadline.

Any student who lives in the Cleveland Metropolitan School District and will be entering grades K-8 next year is eligible. Private schools across the city are now accepting applications.

This is a program that puts parents in the driver's seat.

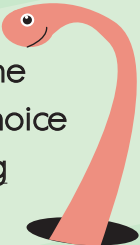

INTERESTED?

Step 1: Explore the private school options. Call and visit to see which ones seem like a good fit for your kids. A list of the 40 private schools you can choose from is online at www.scoho.org.

Step 2: Enroll your child in the private school you like best.

Step 3: The private school will then apply for the Cleveland Scholarship on your behalf. Once a student receives the scholarship, they can renew it through high school graduation.

For a list of private schools or help with the scholarship process, please call School Choice Ohio at 1-800-673-5876. www.scoho.org
